affäre dreyfuss

“in good company”

In the past and the present musicians families have a standing in all kinds of musical styles. To give some examples: the Strauss Dynasty, the Marsalis family (Wynton, Brandford und Elis Marsalis) or in Pop music Miley Cyrus and her father Billy Ray.

Seldom though you'll find 3 family members on one stage: Affäre Dreyfuss is the unique 2 generation band consisting of Martin Fuss (saxes) plus his 2 sons Dominik (trumpet) and Florian (saxes), and each of them already performed with international artists like Ray Charles, Joe Zawinul, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Parov Stelar, Norbert Schneider....

The formation was established 2015 with the following rhythm section: Max Tschida (also one of the young lions) on piano plus the highly experienced and congenial Mario Gonzi (drums) and Johannes Strasser (upright bass). Originally the band started out with the repertoire of Horace Silver and Art Blakey....but nowadays a big part are original compositions by the members of the „Fuss Family“.

Building on the tradition of Hard Bop the band developed, by original compositions and new arrangements, a highly up-to-date interpretation of Modern Jazz in the 21st century. Besides of the predominant works of Martin und Dominik, we also find dedications to Horace Silver, Chet Baker oder Stanley Turrentine on this album, as well as the not often heard „One Man's Dream“, which Joe Zawinul wrote for his former Bandleader Cannonball Adderley.

The historical Dreyfuss Affair was about murder and spionage - Affäre Dreyfuss is just about good music and hi-level entertainment!
